

"The Tasting Room: A Napa Valley Comedy" IS BACK!

August 9-18, 2019 - 7 performances only!

Imagine a struggling Napa Valley winery, just trying to pay the bills - until they get a chance to impress the industry's most influential wine critic. Can their wines get the scores they need to finally break through into the big time? Or will Tony, their rough-around-the-edges "wine educator" screw it all up? And what about the secrets of the family history that are spilling out like cheap chablis? "The Tasting Room" is a wine country comedy by Lucky Penny Co-Founder Barry Martin. The world premiere happened in August 2018 and was such a success we're bringing it back in August 2019. Don't miss your chance to see this ripe and juicy comedy, live on stage for two weekends only!
